of the Bo "Bangalore City Improvement Fund". The Comptroller having subsequently represented that there was no separate head as above in the accounts of his office, the said charge was ordered to be met out of the grand for plague expenditure during the current year. Hence, no orders are required on that points.

2) The order of the 6th December 906 referred to relates to the payment of Commutation (Rs 319-1-10) on account of 1 acre and 26 1/4 guntas of dry land of Bagamahalli, Bangalore Taluk, which was acquired for the purpose of allotting house sites to certain men of the Bo Municipality. That amount was also ordered to be debited to the Bo "City Improvement Fund" on the strength of the Comptroller's statement that there was a sum of Rs 31058-3-4 at the credit of that Fund on the 1st June 06. The Resident's letter shows that this entire amount also has not been drawn and hence is the fourth yet.

IV. In the order of 9.7.07 issued from Branch IV, it is directed that the cost should be met out of the allotment made for Plague Expenditure. It is not clear that this is a charge on the State Funds. If it is, it has, as already stated above, to be met from Plague Funds of Rs 80,000 There is no other source for meeting this charge

Dear Mr. Singla Chan,

I went through the whole file ending with Government Proceedings No. 4654-6 Mis (202-04) date 14-12-06 and find that no value was fixed upon Sites granted to the men of the old Pioneer Cherry nor was anything recovered from them as Site value at any time

The fact that the Site have been marked out and allotted to the Pioneer Cherry men has been reported
